

Loras College allowing 16 blacks to remain in school after taking over a dorm by force is a great miscarriage of administration by Msgr. Justin Driscoll.

His 4 a.m. decision could be excused either by being in a sleepy daze or by temporarily being brainwashed by Father Clements and his followers from Chicago.

Msgr. Driscoll is allowing himself and Loras College to be tossed about by less than one percent of the entire enrollment of students of Loras.

The United States has laws, the state of Iowa has laws, and Loras College has laws, laws which were broken by a few who decided to take the law into their own hands last weekend. Laws which were made so men of all color and creed could live together in peace.

When Msgr. Driscoll stood by and let this happen, he opened the door for further disorder.

Good luck to you Msgr. Driscoll — you brought this upon yourself.

Paul Seippel
Loras College