

The Sunday schedule here is a little worse than it was at St. Mary's. It's a "hot race" from 7:30 until 12 noon. The Army and Air Force combine for that. I get the worse end of that. They have 30,000 men all the time and mostly new recruits so that means an endless number of confessions but I am only too happy to have the opportunity to help these boys get started on the right track in the military.

My boss is a Southern Baptist Minister, a very fine gentleman. Does not interfere with my religious duties & activities and is a very hard worker. I am fortunate to have been placed under such a man since I had no training for it. I am getting the 'on the job training course'.

I have heard Father Samuels' name mentioned a number of times & by Chaplains passing through here who speak of him as one of the finest.

Greetings to all.

Yours in Christ
