

NAVAL AUXILIARY AIR STATION, RODD FIELD

NAVAL AIR TRAINING CENTER

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS

The deaths, changes and "remonecsturs" of the diocese make me wonder what to expect — if and when I hang out the "business as usual" sign. Why don't you write your "memoirs" — ?

At present my "staff" is depleted. A yeoman in sick bay, a helper transferred and only Pancho, my faithful Mexican, to act as sexton, remains. Being tied to a desk has one advantage — between sweeping chits I get a chance to write a few letters.

You can tell from the wrinkled condition of this letter that it has been through the Battle of Desk Top. A score or more of interruptions have successfully prevented any coherence. It must be glorious out in McEllisterville. Pat & Dunn are out of their element — they
