Dear Mame,

Your combination type & hand letter was a welcome sight in the mail tonight. A fellow goes along for days living in the bustling present and oblivious to the past. - then out of the blue (literally for after mail is flown to us) comes a letter from the V. S. and one more all the antics of the ecclesiastical zoo springs to mind.

It was a surprise to learn that the old bottle scamed veteran McAnoy was back in the states. Had my mind all made up to go looking for him soon.

The last priest from Dulqueine to share a session with me was Donly Chihak - "lonely little fellow" as P. J. Coffey would
