

Have met the archbishop of this island and several missionary priests, brothers and sisters. They are the soul of hospitality.

Fortunate enough to run into Fr. Weber, Fr. Haddigan and Fr. Gargle, formerly of Austin, Minn. whom I knew when at Menly.

Fr. McDevitt of Davenport is here, at least temporarily.

One learns to move slowly here. Problems of food, water, climate make one go easily.

Regards to Archbishops ~~Prekmans and Redman~~ and all the clergy.

With best wishes, I remain
Sincerely yours in Christ
Clarence A. Ferring
