

(4)

under the direction of Christian Brothers, I feel that my background provides me with a practical education in this subject. Even while at West Point I was under the religious guidance of Monsignor Murdock and Father Moore. In connection with this same matter I understand that seminarians are free during the summer months and that courses in Philosophy are offered at the Catholic University. I also