Army to do that work, and it's a job that should be done soon. Give me some pointers on the best way to tackle this, would you?

There are many occasions, too where the Protestants have set up a fund from which their parishes may draw funds, all American money, and we have no such things. When the German Bishops can't understand it, neither can I. I can't devote as much time to this work now because I'm answerable to the Army, but that can be changed by my resignation.

Well, I've rambled on, but it's good to talk to you.

God bless you,

John [ZWACK]
