POW Camp
Camp Carson, Colo.

Re. Rev. D. V. Tobey
Dubuque, Iowa

Dear Monsignor,

Could the Apostolic Delegation service locate a Polish priest prisoner captured in Sicily? His name is Father Cembor, O. F. M.

I believe he had to serve as a combatant in the German army. He was captured in Sicily.

A prisoner here is engaged to marry this priest's niece; he is anxious to find out his address.

Things are going along quietly. About 1,000 prisoners are in side camps in Colorado, working sugar beets. In the presence of two other officers, I visited the camps rather hastily last Friday to Sunday.

I am enclosing a check for the Archbishop.

Sincerely in Christ

Clarence A. Herring

July 10-15 we are to have a service comm. chaplains' school; promises to be rugged.
