Dear Father,

Received your V-Mail letter today. Glad to hear all's well on the home front. ~~and that we are short some more priests in the Army. The shortage here in England is worse than in the States.~~ We are in 17 AAA Battalions, and I'm the lone Catholic Chaplain. While in Salisbury I heard today that Fr. Conroy was at the 108th General Hospital (~~Det. of Patients~~), so dropped in on him. ~~He's in bed with~~ sickness (?) or else. ~~Too bad they~~ missed his ~~with which we~~ Good to see an old friend again. We had a nice trip over and the time passed very swiftly. Keep up the prayers for us. God bless you & yours.

Fr. John Zwack
