

Still some sin to stamp out - but don't want my successor to "go rotting" from monotony so am leaving a few tasks for him!

Corpus is a beautiful place to winter - would like to have you down but won't be here much longer.

And then there was the summarized mother who claimed she was a Virgin - one of the ten foolish ones.

I'll be seeing you in all those old familiar places.

With a prayer
