SEE INSTRUCTION NO. 3

Dear Monsignor Foley, - Germany
Hope you had a happy Easter. I couldn't say Mass Easter until 6:00 P. M., and then for a small group. We are always on the move since we are in Patton's Army. Now you know where I am, as you over there know more of the war than we do. We keep up through the Paris edition of the NY Times Paris Edition. Said two Masses Holy Week in a very beautiful Cathedral spared by God from the war. It was built in 1030, and a sight to take one's breath away. Had a long talk with the bishop. He speaks very fine German and Latin.
My warmest regards to the Archbishop
John J. Zwick
