Dear Meg:

- France -

Today it's a year for in the Chaplain's Office. I it seems such a short time! Weeks and months seem to fly.

Somehow I got to say Mass every day, and haven't missed an hour of office. I hope Our Lord understands the strange places I have to use as a church. Yesterday I scrooped the rubble off the high altar of a once beautiful church of which only the crucifix and the Stations were intact.

I'm with the 7th Army, moving ahead and at the rate we're going, the war will be over over here soon!

Regards to the Archbishop, my fellow priests. John Jacob
