

(2)

I am twenty-five (25) years of age and a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point (Class of June 1943).

For quite some time I have had the feeling that I should have entered the Priesthood.

Since I have been in service I have become intimate with several Chaplains whose friendships have tended to make me more certain of my calling. After meeting Father Zwack of Your Excellency's diocese and