

I am submitting these things in the hope that the religious freedom may become a fact in this camp.

Also, is it not possible that theological students be given time and opportunity to study? Usually, it seems, they are assigned to regular work details. The big cry seems to be that everyone must work.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ

Clarence A. Ferring,
Chaplain.