Dear Major D.V.F.,

Don't say that I didn't try - I tried so often to get in touch with you that I felt like I da Mae. At the hangout you were too busy - I buzzed the telephone off the wall from then until train time to try to get a word in. Sorry I missed you - so!

It was a hurried trip with a few days spent in Des Moines - some of them at the Passionist Monastery making a brief "Reader's Digest" version of a retreat. Managed to say mass on Sunday in Belmond & had a plane waiting for me in St Louis to take me back the day after the Installation.

I was also very sorry to Miss P. Mc Eel.
