Monsignor Foley:-

Just a brief note - first of all, a belated thanks for the check, I was really in need. Everything has been going along in routine fashion. We now have a beautiful Blessed Sacrament chapel set up - really, rather proud of it. Quite a few fellows have been stopping in - doing a brisk business in votive lights - probably turning them for discharges.

Tomorrow we're starting a Holy Name society to see if we can start getting some of the slackers to the sacraments. The plan is to set up a committee in every regiment (excuse it!) company which will check up on the lost sheep and turn their names in to me. I think it will help the situation.

My mother phoned and said that Dr. Scheele died - I don't get the Witness so I don't keep up on those things. Have any of the other priests left for service yet?

Again, many thanks - hope to hear from you soon - Regards - Father Brierie
