

from last week & mentioned how impossible it was to get in a retreat - which I really need but he assured me that I had enough retreat.

It's interesting how many priests are on duty with army - Lambert is up at the hot spot as are many others we know - Muller went to San Francisco & I presume by this time is in Munda a some other hole in Pacific. Even Mansey now are going there - a Fr. Conway from Davenport just passed thru to Alaska flashing his purple. I wonder - being a simple priest & arduous chest red shirts around how they feel. Maybe I should be a "Monseigneur" - Fix it up so I can have some semblance of authority & dignity.

Did you ever tell me what happened to M<sup>r</sup> Enomy - as I see he is back on duty with the diocese? How about Jack Reyon is he still in Ferry Command & in Brazil.

I sure would like to have some experience of Fr Al Hoffman in No Africa & possibly now in Sicily or by the time this letter reaches you in Italy - I guess I stuck here for the duration or until I get in some one's hair too much -

Best wishes

Thomas J Conway, Major
Post Chaplain
Hawton Wn