With to-day in the news we can't say how long we will be here. So many rumors floating about one can't tell what will come. By the time you receive this letter you may address me as Colonel (et al). There has been some string pulling to have me go along with II Army. Won't know until last of week. Hoped to pay you "all" a visit on a leave which I had hoped to get. but I just can't get away. They are pulling out Catholic Chaplains with no regard how we carry on - and this particular area has a lack of priests - Alexandria - with one Church Leesville - a mission - with New Orleans (250 mi) the closest - See me on leave -

I am awfully sorry to hear of the death of
