Let's try*

Dear Major Foley,
your letters come very regularly and are well received. They keep me up-to-date. I'm happy to hear that the Loras Chapel is under construction. I'll have to order a 'de luxe' Missal for it, from Pustet.

There hasn't been much progress made toward my desired end, being affiliated with Catholic Charities here in Bavaria. I did talk with Baron Aretin in Munich last week. He is the head of the Charity in Bavaria. Next week I have an appointment with Fr. Roesch, S. J., who is taking over Aretin's post. He is the Roesch who did such a marvelous job translating the New Testament into German. Then I shall go with him
